Latest Feedback from Mindtree Ltd. Client (Some parts redacted to preserve confidentiality)

Hi Vishal,

I am enjoying working with you. I find you communicate well & are always prepared to ask good questions and challenge/disagree where needed. I see you as a safe & thorough pair of hands who can be relied on to deliver and does not need constant supervision and oversight: simply the expected peer-to-peer reviews necessary in any complex data project.

You have dealt very well with a wide range of new technology, tool, process and standards w.r.t. ■■■■ ■■■■; picking things up very quickly with minimal fuss. Despite this - and having to cover a lot of tech work without support after ■■■■ left - you have continued to just get things done in a "self-starting" way.

We have been focusing a lot of our effort on tracking status of data, identifying failures, understanding scenarios and working out how to validate a process end-to-end quickly. These will be areas I would suggest you build on in future projects. As an analyst/architect or project manager good things to focus your developers on even if you are not doing the coding yourself.

Thanks for all your efforts: much appreciated,
